SUBJECT

2411. U. S. POLICY IN VIET NAM

- a. Noted and discussed an oral summary by the Deputy Secretary of Defense of a written report distributed at the meeting on the counter-insurgency plan for Viet Nam. It was agreed that members of the Council would study the Defense report and be prepared to consider it at a meeting of the Council on Saturday, April 29, 1961. Any member having a specific objection will be expected to propose alternative language.
- b. Noted the President's directive that the Department of State and the U. S. Information Agency should urgently prepare programs for informing the American public and other nations on the situation in Viet Nam.

2412. EMERGENCY FREEDOM FUND

- a. Noted a recommendation from the Department of State that contingency funds for combatting communism should be sought through regular or supplementary budget requests rather than by asking for an emergency freedom fund. The President reserved decision, pending discussion with the Secretary of State, but expressed his desire that Budget requests should in any event be prepared as promptly as possible.
- b. Noted that the Director of Central Intelligence would review CIA contingency fund requests, having in mind the possibility of requesting additional funds.

2413. U. S. POLICY TOWARD CUBA

- a. Noted the President's view that a decision with respect to trading with Cuba should be deferred pending developments in Cuba during the next week.
- b. Noted the President's request that the Attorney General should prepare recommendations regarding control of Cubans entering or residing in the United States.
